The Trade Winds.
The constancy of trade winds is due to the permanence of the conditions which rule them. As the heated air at the equator ascends surface winds set in from north and south and, utilizing, in their turn and flow off in opposite directions. As the velocity of the earth's revolution from east to west is much greater at the equator than at the poles, wind blowing along the surface to the equator is constantly retarded at places which have a higher velocity than itself; hence it is retarded and must lag behind, and under the influence of two opposing forces it is compelled to take an intermediate direction, so that what was originally a north wind is deflected and flows southwest, while what started as a south wind becomes northwest. From the great service they have rendered in navigation these reliable winds are called trade winds.

Andersen-Rineck Wedding.

The marriage of Miss Sarah C. Andersen, eldest daughter of Mr. Fred Andersen, to Mr. Alphonse Joseph Rineck, was solemnized at the Presbyterian church on Wednesday afternoon at 1 o'clock. Rev. R. S. Burris, pastor of the church officiating.

The church was beautifully decorated for the occasion with ferns, evergreens and bougainvillea, and a large white wedding bell, under which the happy couple were united, was suspended from an arch formed by asparagus ferns and bougainvillea.

Promptly at 12:45 Miss Helen Norton, officiating at the organ, commenced the musical program with a rendition of the San Faise by Dubois. The bridal chorus from "The Rose Maiden," by Caven, was beautifully rendered by the quartette—Miss Ruth Selina Burton, soprano; Miss Ruth Herlong, contralto; Mr. C. W. Norton, tenor, and Mr. W. F. Glynn, bass.

Promptly at 1 o'clock the bridal party entered the church to the strains of Lohengren's wedding march; the officiating clergyman entering first and followed by the groom and his best man, Mr. C. Oliver Chamberlin. The ushers, Mr. J. Blaine Shiver and Mr. Phillips Cash came next, followed by the bridesmaid, Miss Anselina Burton, and the groomsmen, Mr. J. Frank Rhoads. Next to enter was the pretty little flower girl, Miss Allen Ganas, and the little ring bearer, Master Vernon Harper. The maid of honor, the bride's sister, Miss Mabel Andersen, then entered followed by the bride on the arm of her father, Mr. Fred Andersen.

The bride wore a beautiful white crepe de chene with veil carried with orange blossoms and carried bridal roses.

Miss Mabel Andersen, maid of honor, wore a most attractive lavender crepe de chene dress, white hat, and carried a bouquet of white carnations.

The bridesmaid, Miss Anselina Burton, wore a beautiful white net dress, white hat, and carried white carnations.

The little flower girl, Miss Allen Ganas, and the ring-bearer, Master Vernon Harper, were very attractively attired and performed their parts most cleverly.

During the ceremony Miss Norton played softly "My Heart at Thy Sweet Voice." And as the party were leaving played the Mendelssohn recessional.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's father, which was attended by a large number, and where there was a beautiful array of pretty wedding presents. Following the reception Mr. and Mrs. Rineck left for a honeymoon trip of some three weeks to New York and other points north.

ANNUAL REPORT OF THE PRESIDENT Of the Village Improvement Association, Read at the October Meeting.

The year 1915-1916 has been one that will stand out in the history of the V. I. A. with special prominence and interest, for during this year we have erected our new building; were honored by a visit from the president of the E. F. W. C.; received voluntary gifts to the amount of $252 and solicited gifts to the amount of $250; established the fact that a motion picture show can be successfully operated by our Club; and last but not least, acquired a debt of $4,000.

Our property, including the new theatre, the Club House and the three-fourths of an acre of land, has now a value of about $10,000. Considering this value and the fact that we have a steady income from our moving pictures during at least two-thirds of the year, the debt of $4,000 is not a crushing burden, especially as we know that each member is ready to put her shoulder to the wheel in so far as her strength and time will allow, to assist in earning sufficient money to meet current expenses and reduce the debt.

During the year there have been held eight regular business meetings, beginning with Nov. and ending with June.

The Social afternoons, under the able management of the first, or social, vice-president, were remarkably successful, affording great pleasure to members and friends of the V. I. A. and in one case, on St. Patrick's Day, adding a neat little sum to the treasury.

The resignation of the Civics vice-president, necessitated by her departure from town, greatly retarded the work of the civics department. However, a successor was appointed, and a goodly amount of work accomplished in the way of cleaning on Central Avenue and at the Junction. At the latter place a large amount of filling in has been done, also, thereby improving the driveway and general appearance of the station and its surroundings. By prompt action and interviews with property owners, the erection of a long and unsightly line of bill boards along the highways was prevented.

The Literary Department under the direction of the third, or Literary, Vice-president, held weekly reading meetings for a number of months, which meetings were exceptionally interesting and well attended, and proved to be a decided attraction to many of our visitors as well as to our members.

The Cemetery Committee has done its usual work of keeping Palmetto Cemetery cleaned and in order. The committee presented to the Crescent City Cemetery Association a petition signed by a majority of the lot owners, asking that the Cemetery Association include Palmetto Cemetery in its holdings and care, but the petition was not granted because of the scarcity of funds for its upkeep and an uncertainty as to obtaining a clear title.

The circulating library has continued its good work: an unusually large number of new books have been bought and donated. The Committee in charge gave two attractive card parties for the purpose of raising money for new books and a new book case.

The Motion Picture Department has been successful beyond expectation, both financially and in the way of affording a much desired recreation for residents and visitors of the town and the adjacent villages.

The Woman's Exchange Department had a busy and eminently successful season, serving delicious refreshments each Saturday afternoon at the Club House, and catering for several private parties given at the Club House. The work of the Committee in charge of this department was not only profitable in dollars and cents but in its social results as well.

The new theater, named by the Association, V. I. A. Hall, was opened in February with a most admirable presentation of a Shakespearean Comedy. This was followed by the annual two-day fair, held in the Club House, all of which brought to the coffers of the Association a net profit of $417.

During the latter part of spring several ice cream sales were held and in May a Cafeteria Supper which captured the fancy of the public and many of its dimes and quarters was given by a specially appointed committee.

A committee was appointed to make an effort to have the cows debarred from the privilege of roaming the streets of the town. After much correspondence with the Attorney General and consultation with lawyers it was found that Crescent City has not a sufficient population (1200 required) to enable her to enforce an impounding ordinance.

In August your president and treasurer went before the Board of County Commissioners with a request that the V. I. A. being strictly a public benefit organization be exempt from taxation. The Commissioners decided in our favor as far as lay in their power. The matter was further taken up by the County Clerk, who obtained from the Comptroller authority to cancel taxes levied for 1915. A like request presented to our Town Council received prompt and favorable response.

A "Better Babies" contest was held in April for babies in the town only, Dr. Beggs taking charge of the examinations, and the doctor reported a very high average amongst our babies.

The Club House was offered, free of charge, for the daily use of a men's club, the special purpose being to supply a comfortable reading and recreation room for the many stranger young men who are with us during the orange packing season. Because of uncontrollable circumstances, the club was not organized last year. The offer of the Club House is still open, and the Club will probably be organized within a short time.

The Club House was used for a Good Roads meeting, for S. P. C. A. and Cemetery Association meetings, and the Tennis Club continues to have the use of the grounds for its two courts. The V. I. A. wishes to thank and compliment the Tennis Club for placing on its court so attractive and substantial a judges stand.

In February the Hon. Wm. J. Bryan gave a lecture under the auspices of the V. I. A. dividing door receipts with the Association. An informal luncheon was given in his honor at the home of your president. In April Mrs. W. S. Jennings, president of the Florida Federation of Women's Clubs, gave a most interesting and inspiring address at the Club House. Special Committees beautifully decorated the room, and served light refreshments after the address, and a very informal luncheon was given by your president.

For all the generous, efficient aid given us by the many friends amongst both the residents and the tourists the Association gives most hearty and appreciative thanks.

Death has come into our midst and we deeply mourn the loss of our beloved and revered member and former Literary Vice-president, Miss Phoebe Stryker, who died suddenly at her home during the month of May.

As is usual, we have had great harmony and pleasure in our club work during the past year, and we meet together again in the same spirit of harmony and pleasure to begin the work of our new year. Last year we all worked just as hard and just as much as we possibly could work, more than we do a little bit more, not only for the material results, but for the continuance of harmony and kindly feeling in our club and in our community.

SEVERE PUNISHMENT

Of Mrs. Chappell, of Five Years'

Standing, Relieved by Cardui.

The Blow on the Jaw.
A man struck with any degree of force upon the mental area of the jaw, although he may be in perfect physical condition, instantly collapses and falls to the ground, says a medical journal. The attitude assumed in recovery, which may be instantaneous or delayed some minutes, is most characteristic. He squirms about, raises his head and rolls his eyes in an attempt to locate himself. He tries to get on his side and elbow; he endeavors to raise upon his hands and knees. If he remains his feet he staggers like a drunken man. The blow is practically never fatal; the heart's action is never unduly accelerated; the pulse and respiration are normal; the pupils are normal, there is no headache, no sweats, no cold extremities, no pallor—none of the ordinary signs of shock or concussion.

SEVERE PUNISHMENT

Of Mrs. Chappell, of Five Years'

Standing, Relieved by Cardui.

Mt. Airy, N. C.—Mrs. Sarah M. Chappell of this town, says: "I suffered for five years with womanly troubles, also stomach troubles, and my punishment was more than any one could tell."

I tried most every kind of medicine, but none did me any good.

I read one day about Cardui, the woman's tonic, and I decided to try it. I had not taken but about six bottles until I was almost cured. It did me more good than all the other medicines I had tried, put together.

My friends began asking me why I looked so well, and I told them about Cardui. Several are now taking it.

Do you, lady reader, suffer from any of the ailments due to womanly trouble, such as headache, backache, sideache, sleeplessness, and that everlasting tired feeling?

If so, let us urge you to give Cardui a trial. We feel confident it will help you, just as it has a million other women in the past half century.

Begin taking Cardui to-day. You won't regret it. All druggists.
